Notes:

Not all the books in one series are always the same level, the levels listed are the typical level for that series. Where there are several levels, generally the higher level is listed to prevent children from reading frustrating material. Occasionally, multiple levels are represented indicating that this level is approximate NOT definitive.

Some families may not find all the books on this list right for their children. These books are meant to give ideas and choice and are not required reading.

**Books at these levels are typically exclusive to middle school students and older. Content can be mature. Content may offend some audiences. Books should be previewed by an adult for appropriateness.
